

Jaclyn Dove
Managing Director – Global Head of Sustainable Finance Strategic Initiatives

Jaclyn is a Managing Director, Global Head of Sustainable Finance Strategic Initiatives in the Chief Sustainability Office (CSO), responsible for defining the sustainability frameworks that drive SCB's green, transition, social and sustainable lending businesses.

Jaclyn joined Standard Chartered Bank (SCB) from JP Morgan where she was Head of Transaction Banking Sales, EMEA. With over 25 years of banking experience, Jaclyn is a seasoned executive with broad geographic coverage across EMEA and Asia; in addition, she has a depth of experience in managing corporate, loan syndications, global subsidiaries and financial institutional businesses at JP Morgan, Barclays and Standard Chartered.

Experienced in markets and risk management, Jaclyn combined her passion in sustainability and the natural world to analyse gaps in environmental and social risk and impact reporting. With a focus on driving initiatives across markets to address the structural obstacles that stand in the way of environmental and social stewardship.

Jaclyn is based in Singapore, where she currently resides, Jaclyn has two children and enjoys swimming, arts, and travel.